1. Review of budget planning process – Summer time
   The final budget recommendations each year tend to come after Spring semester has ended, but before Faculty return for Fall semester. How would the committee like to have input to the budget process during this time when the committee would not normally meet.

2. Discuss process that we would use for conducting the budget hearings in the Spring