The President's Office supports the University mission to provide a quality education, generate new knowledge and help to use knowledge for individuals and our community.

The President's Office provides general consultative leadership to the University and serves as a primary liaison to the Chancellor's Office. The President's Office represents the University to the CSU system, state entities and to the community. The Office develops and implements policy as per Title V and Chancellor's Office directives. The Office provides oversight to committees that search for Vice Presidents and other administrative leaders. The Office initiates and supports campus and community initiatives.