ACADEMIC PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Career Center: Academic and Career Advising Center

Gist Hall 114
www.humboldt.edu/career/
(707) 826-3341

ACAC unifies the functions of both academic and career advising to provide guidance to students concerning career aspirations and academic achievement goals. Services may include individualized or group work with staff concerning course selection, major exploration, career possibilities, class schedule-building, understanding graduation requirements (including general education) and mapping out coursework in order to graduate on time. ACAC also offers individual and group attention for students on various career-oriented topics, including: acquiring jobs and internships; writing resumes/cover letters; interviewing tips; career guidance; and applying to graduate school. The ACAC is where undeclared students receive academic advising.

Cross-Cultural Centers for Academic Excellence

Nelson Hall East, 2nd Floor; Brero House #93, Warren House #38
www.humboldt.edu/cae

The mission of the Cross-Cultural Centers for Academic Excellence is to engage students in navigating successful pathways through college in a way that honors, preserves, and sustains diverse cultural value systems. Our programs, services, and mentoring promote the individual and academic advancement of our students in a culturally welcoming and dynamic environment. All students are welcome to seek support, services, and community within any of the centers.

There are currently five Centers: the African American Center, INRSEP/Center for Academic Excellence in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering & Mathematics), the Latin@ Center, the MultiCultural Center, and the Native American Center (ITEPP). An Asian American/Pacific Islander Center and LGBTQ Center are planned for the future.
The various Centers offer a range of services, such as:

- culturally relevant academic mentoring and support
- academic and co-curricular engagement, such as involvement in internships, clubs, events, and activities
- support in clarifying academic interests, values, strengths, and talents
- leadership training in coordinating socio-cultural activities and events
- referral to appropriate campus and community resources

INRSEP/Center for Academic Excellence in STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics)

Warren House #38
Samantha.Martinez@humboldt.edu
www.humboldt.edu/inrsep
(707) 826-4998

A program designed to support students who are pursuing degrees in the natural resource and science disciplines, and who are historically underrepresented in the STEM fields. Designed to provide culturally relevant facilities, activities, events, and opportunities that promote academic, intellectual, socio-cultural, and personal success and achievement. This Center houses multiple student support programs, including INRSEP (Indian Natural Resource, Science and Engineering Program), HSU chapters of SACNAS (Society for Advancement of Chicanos and Native Americans in the Sciences), and LSAMP (Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation).

Eric Rofes Multicultural Queer Resource Center

Warren House 53
theerc@humboldt.edu
www.humboldt.edu/erc
(707) 826-3795

Aims to create a focus of learning about issues facing the queer community and to bring students, faculty, and staff together for advocacy and education. Four paid student positions available each year.

Learning Center

Learning Commons
(Lower Library, Room 055)
www.humboldt.edu/learning
(707) 826-5217

Located below the University Library, the Learning Center provides tutoring, mentoring, and skills development for all HSU students. Students can get help with difficult courses, test preparation, and reading, math, and writing skills.
The Tutorial Program provides free small group tutoring for lower division courses. One-to-one tutoring is also offered for a small fee. The Tutorial Coordinator can help students find tutors and form study groups.

The Math Tutoring Lab, (Library 208) is a free walk-in support program where students receive assistance with mathematical problem solving.

The Writing Center offers free assistance with writing assignments and standardized writing exam preparation.

Supplemental Instruction provides an opportunity for students to study with peer leaders. Sessions – designed to help students develop course-specific academic and study skills – are scheduled for rigorous entry-level and core science courses from several departments.

MultiCultural Center (MCC)
Balabanis Family House 55
(on the south side of the HSU Library)
www.humboldt.edu/multicultural mcc@humboldt.edu
www.facebook.com/HSU.MultiCulturalCenter
(707) 826-3364

The MCC, a student-initiated program, promotes understanding of diversity, celebrates our differences and welcomes multi-ethnic perspectives. At the MCC, people are invited to explore identity and history, experience culture and traditions, express feelings and ideas and empower each other to work for social justice.

Student Disability Resource Center (SDRC)
Learning Commons (Lower Library)
www.humboldt.edu/disability
(707) 826-4678

Provides service, support, and resources for Students with Disabilities to maximize educational opportunities at HSU. SDRC can help with adaptive technologies, interpreters, note-taking, on-campus transportation, reading services, advising, registration assistance, test-taking facilitation, and more.
Women's Resource Center (WRC)
Balabanis House 55 (same as the MultiCultural Center)
www.humboldt.edu/hsuwomen
hsuwomen@humboldt.edu
(707) 826-4216

The WRC aims to provide the tools, support and safe spaces to empower people to dismantle systems of power, privilege, and oppression. It has an activist-oriented resource room, offers grants to students for events/workshops, and hosts workshops and events throughout the year.

Youth Educational Services (Y.E.S.)
www.humboldt.edu/yes
yes@humboldt.edu
www.facebook.com/YEShsu
House 91, (707) 826-4965

Y.E.S. supports HSU students in creating and implementing volunteer programs that provide services to people across a range of ages and backgrounds in our local community. This experiential learning opportunity allows for students to expand on their academic careers as they learn to balance academia and community-based activism.
