California Department of Fish and Wildlife
Seasonal Job Bulletin

Position: Fish and Wildlife Scientific Aid (1 positions)
Position Number: 565-541-0835-905
RPA Number: SCR 13-038
Program: Inland Fisheries
Location: San Diego, CA
Salary Range: $11.58 per hour starting
Hours: Part time & flexible, 16 - 30 hrs/week. (year-round)
Application Deadline: until filled

Minimum Qualifications:
- Willingness to work irregular hours including nights, weekends and holidays;
- Properly wear a uniform;
- Either I: Education - Two years of college with 10 semester units in biology or other natural resource related studies OR II: one year experience in surveying, studying, or evaluating fish or wildlife populations;
- Ability to read and speak English at a level required for successful job performance;
- Ability to swim 50 yards and stay afloat at least five minutes;
- Work in various weather conditions and on uneven terrain;
- Possession of a valid California driver's license, with a clean driving record
- Lift 40lbs.

Desired Knowledge and Abilities:
- Comprehension of fish biology and life history
- Familiarity with ecological management principles
- Familiar with boat nomenclature and safe trailering practices
- Word processing and data entry skills
- Good organizational skills and ability to keep accurate records
- Self-motivated with good people skills

Duties:
- Assist with fish surveys, and perform recreational creel survey
- Professionally represent the CDFW while working
- Assist with habitat restoration and bass tournament monitoring
- Perform data entry and analysis
- Assist with public events and provide education and outreach

Contact: D. Russell Black, (858) 467-4262, Duane.black@wildlife.ca.gov

How to Apply: Mail or fax a standard State Application Form (STD 678) and/or resume to:
Marilyn Baker
Department of Fish and Game
3883 Ruffin Road, San Diego, CA  92123

Include RPA # SCR13 038 on the application.

We are an Equal Opportunity Employer offering equal opportunity to all regardless of sex, race, religion, ancestry, disability, or sexual orientation.