Geology Department Requirements for Minor

The minor in Geology is intended for students who wish to augment their degree program with an emphasis in Geology.

Procedure:
Fill out the Minor Program form with the approval of the Geology Department Chair and submit to the Registrar’s Office at least one semester before graduation.

Course Requirements:

GEOL 109 (4 units) General Geology (or equivalent)

Take one of the following two courses:
  - GEOL 110 (1 unit) Field Geology of the Western US or
  - GEOL 235 Field Methods I (1 unit)

At least one of the following four courses:
  - GEOL 300 (3 units) California Geology or
  - GEOL 303 (3 units) Earth Resources & Global Environmental Change
  - GEOL 305 (3 units) Fossils, Life & Evolution or
  - GEOL 308 (3 units) Natural Disasters

GEOL 306 (3 units) General Geomorphology

Take one of the following two courses:
  - GEOL 312 (4 units) Earth Materials or
  - GEOL 332 (4 units) Sedimentary Geology

Plus 3 units of approved upper division GEOL coursework

* also meets Upper Division Area B requirements

Updated Jan 2012