Herbivores and the grass root movement:
1. How long ago did the Herbivore and Grass root movement start? ________________
2. Choose two Skulls from Case #16

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Common Name</th>
<th>Species Name</th>
<th>Period</th>
<th>Location</th>
<th>Sketch Fossil</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Horse Before the cart
1. In the Pleistocene, what horses began to evolve? _________________. What are they relatives to? ___
2. ____________________________________________
   What characteristics did they have? ____________________________________________

Carnivores - Diversify and Conquer
1. What sorts of animals are considered carnivores?
   ____________________________________________
2. How many years ago was the first carnivorous animal found? ________________

Pleistocene Extinctions- Close encounters with mankind
1. How many years ago did humans begin migrating to North America? ________________
2. Which animals did humans impact by migrating to Northern America? ________________
3. In the case index: What is the most common location the Pleistocene animal skulls were found, and what are three species names from this era?
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________
   ____________________________________________

Giants- What’s the big idea?
1. What are three mammals that hit a gigantic size during the Cenozoic period?
   a. ____________________________ b. ____________________________
   c. ____________________________
2. Why didn’t other animals grow so large? ____________________________________________
3. Name the two locations these giant mammals were found by clicking on case #18..
   a. ____________________________ b. ____________________________

Proboscideans- Unforgettable Faces
1. How many species of elephants have existed? ____________________________________________
2. How many species of elephants remain today? ____________________________________________