

EQUALITY CALIFORNIA INSTITUTE COMCAST FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Building a State of Equality

Equality California Institute (EQCAI) educates lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender (LGBT) people and the public at large about issues impacting the LGBT community and our allies in order to advance social change and public policy reforms that positively impact the lives of LGBT Californians. Established in 2000, EQCAI organizes and empowers individuals, communities, and allied groups to work proactively for fairness, equality, and justice.

Our Work

The Equality California Institute spearheads several exciting statewide initiatives. Health Happens with Equality is a groundbreaking project, supported by The California Endowment, to improve healthcare access for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender Californians, specifically reaching out to those members of our community who have historically been uninsured, underinsured, or underserved by insurers and the medical community. Equality California Institute conducted LGBT cultural competency trainings for hundreds of clinic staff in Bakersfield, Fresno, Madera County, and elsewhere across the state and partnered with local organizations including Gay Central Valley, the Dolores Huerta Foundation, and The Gay & Lesbian Center of Bakersfield to hold town halls across the region.

EQCAI's groundbreaking Fair Share for Equality initiative works to educate legislators, policy makers, and the broader community on the health and well-being disparities facing California's LGBT community and how best to address them through allocation of budgetary resources, program development, coalition building, and community outreach.

In partnership with the Transgender Law Center, EQCAI created a statewide coalition to launch a comprehensive Transgender Public Education Campaign to promote compassion, respect, and kindness to ensure that transgender people receive the respect they deserve as positive and contributing members of our communities across California.

Equality California, EQCAI's sister organization, is the largest statewide LGBT civil rights organization focused on creating a fair and just society through advocacy, electoral outreach, education, and mobilization. EQCA's mission is to achieve and maintain full and lasting equality, acceptance, and social justice for all people in our diverse LGBT communities, inside and outside of California. Over the past decade, Equality California has partnered with a broad alliance of LGBT people, educators, government officials, communities of color and faith, labor business, and social justice communities to strategically move California from a state with extremely limited legal protections for LGBT people to a state with some of the most comprehensive human rights protections in the nation. Equality California, together with its allies, has successfully sponsored 118 pieces of pro-equality legislation and continues to advance equality and the health and well-being of LGBT people through advocacy, electoral work, public education, and community empowerment.

The Comcast Fellowship Program

Through a generous grant from the Comcast Foundation and in partnership with the California LGBT Legislative Caucus, EQCAI is sponsoring a four-week intensive fellowship program for six (6) students who have completed at least their first year of studies at college or university. The program will begin on Monday, June 26, 2017 and will end on Friday, July 21, 2017. The deadline to apply is April 7, 2017. See “Application Requirements” for instructions.

Participants will gain valuable insight and experience that includes:

- Placement in a Sacramento legislative office as an intern in a role allowing for first-hand experience in the state legislative and budget process;
- Opportunities for close interaction and discussions with leading state policy makers;
- Training on “issues-based organizing” and factors/strategies influencing policy makers; and
- Volunteerism in a leadership capacity during non-work hours.

What the Fellowship Offers

Stipend: Fellows will each receive a stipend of $3,000 for the four-week period. These funds will be provided in four (4) installments as part of successful completion of components of the program.

Work Placement: The fellows will be placed in a legislative office in Sacramento for four (4) weeks and will be assigned mentors that support the fellows’ work.

Interactions with State Leaders: Through EQCAI partners, fellows will have the opportunity to engage key leaders in various sectors of California’s life and culture. Site visits and informal gatherings will be designed to build community and expand the fellows’ leadership and support network.

Leadership Development & Training: The fellows will receive exposure to the inner workings of California government, the factors influencing policy makers, and current and future policy issues facing California.

Qualifications to Apply

Applicants must fulfill the following requirements:

- You have demonstrated leadership in your community. Previous participation in Queer Youth Advocacy Day is preferred but not required.
- You have completed at least your first year of college and will be returning to studies as a full time undergraduate at an accredited college or university.
- You are committed to being in Sacramento from Monday, June 26 through Friday, July 21 and to fulfilling all the requirements of the program. Weekend travel during the fellowship is strongly discouraged and will only be considered prior to the start of the program on a case-by-case basis.
