"Past participants attest that this program is an extraordinary learning experience; one that can be a turning point in a student's life leading to a career choice"

How Would You Like To Work In Washington, D.C.?

Fall semester 2009 Panetta Congressional Internship Program available to an outstanding HSU student.

Tuition, travel, living expenses and a stipend will be PAID by the Panetta Institute for Public Policy.

Open to all majors.

Complete application and essay due by March 27, 2009

To apply:

1. Complete the one-page application form (available on-line at http://studentaffairs.humboldt.edu/ and in the VP of Student Affairs office NHE 216 and the Department of Politics office FH 180)

2. Attach a one page resume.

3. Write an essay: "How this internship will benefit my plans for public service." Include all applicable experience you have attained. The format for the essay is two to five pages, double spaced, 12pt font.

Application and essay are due at the Department of Politics Founders Hall 180, by 5pm on Friday, March 27, 2009.

Support for the program is provided by both the Chancellor of the CSU system and the trustees of the Panetta Institute.

To be considered, students must:

- have a demonstrated commitment to community and public service

- be in junior or senior year, or graduate standing when the program begins in September 2009

- be registered for the Fall 2009 term at the home CSU campus

- be in good academic and social standing

For more information check out the website www.panettainstitute.org or contact the

Dept. of Politics
Founders Hall
826-4494